NOURISHING TINY TUMMIES

Dear Customers,

2010 has so far been a very exciting year for Ripe Baby Food and we are pleased to announce that we will continue to grow into 2011. Our product line now includes three yummy items: Kamoo Bars; Organic 5-Grain Mush; and Baby Cubes. This winter we hope to introduce more nutritious and delicious meals and snacks for your children to enjoy so stay tuned!

In case you haven't yet heard the good news, I am expecting my second child this August. As every mother knows, the last few weeks of pregnancy and months after the birth are a time for relaxation and rejuvenation. To support a happy pregnancy and healthy postpartum, Ripe will temporarily halt production from July 1st and plans to re-open in time for the Coquitlam Farmers Market on October 17th, 2010.

In the meantime we would love to hear from you, tell us what you love about Ripe products, what you would do differently if you wore the chef's hat and what menu items you would love to see in the future.

Send all feedback to info@ripebabyfood.com.

Continue to check our website (www.ripebabyfood.com), Twitters and Facebook page for updates on products and attendance at upcoming markets or tradeshow.

My family and I are very excited to welcome a new tiny tummy into our lives and appreciate all the warm wishes received from those who have noticed my growing baby bump.

All of us at Ripe look forward to seeing you this fall.

Happy Eating!!
